FAQs

1. What do I need to rent a room?
Contracts are required to rent any facility within the Community Center. You must be 21 years or older. Renter must present a photo ID and one signature per contract is permitted.

2. Can I “Hold” a room?
Yes, to “Hold” an event space either in person or by telephone, requires a $250.00 deposit by credit card only. The “Hold” will remain in effect until the end of business on the 3rd day of the initial receipt of deposit. The “Hold” will be canceled and the $250.00 deposit forfeited on the start of the 4th business day unless other arrangements are noted and approved on Hold Form.

3. When must I pay for my rental?
Payment, including a $250 refundable damage fee, must be made at the time of contract by cash or credit card only. In some instances installment payments may be made. If your Regular room rental is over $500, a down payment of 40% of event cost plus a $250 refundable damage fee is required. Linen Packages require a down payment of 25% of package cost plus a $250 refundable damage fee. An agreed monthly payment must be noted on Contract when signed, and the payment will be automatically charged to your credit card on the designated payment date. All Rental fees must be paid in full 3 weeks prior to your event.

4. Am I able to cancel my contract?
Yes, to receive a full refund when canceling an event or to release a Hold, the Renter must submit their request by the 3rd day of the initial down payment date. Requests may be presented either in person or by email to lmckee@southholland.org. There is a cancellation fee of $250 for events canceled on the 4th day of contract signing or thereafter.

5. Is alcohol allowed?
No, possession or consumption of any type of alcoholic beverages on South Holland Community Center Property is prohibited. Violation by any member of a party will result in immediate termination of your event and forfeiture of damage fee. Police will be notified and a citation and/or fine may be issued to both the Renter and the Guest.

6. Can I sell tickets to my event?
Yes. A Permit is required for Vendors (if selling tickets and/or merchandise.) Consult a Rental Associate for the Permit.
7. What is NOT allowed?
Alcohol, inflatables such as bouncy houses, live animals or fish, lit candles, turning off all the lights, having open doors, surpassing room occupancy, loud music, collections of tithes, baptisms, congregating/running in the hallways or lobby, unruly behavior. Food pans are not to be placed directly onto linens. Items are not to be left overnight. No Food or beverages allowed outside of room. No open beverage containers may be brought into the building.

8. Can we have entertainment?
Yes, you may have a DJ, Band (up to 3 pieces,) vocalist or other entertainer. Volume must remain modulated. Should an Event Manager or Security ask that the volume be regulated or discontinued, compliance must be immediate or forfeiture of your $250 Damage Fee will result.

9. Are decorations permitted in the rooms?
Yes. However, no tape, nails, push pins or other devices may be used to hang decorations from the walls, ceilings, windows or doors, although Sticky Tack is allowed. Glitter, confetti or silly string are not allowed. Centerpieces (no lit candles) are permitted. All tables must be covered with a tablecloth. No decorations, tables or signage are permitted outside the rooms.

10. What should I do when I arrive at the Community Center for my event?
Renter must present photo ID and contract to the Event Manager on duty before entrance is permitted into event venue. No one may enter the event room until or unless the Renter is present. Renter must remain on the premises for the entire event.

11. When do I need to vacate the room?
The renter must vacate the premises at the contracted end time. This includes those servicing your event. Renters will be charged $100.00 for the first half-hour of tardiness. The complete $250 damage fee will be forfeited if space is not vacated within (1) hour of overage.

12. How do I get my $250 Refundable Damage Fee returned?
The room must be left in its original condition with the exception being if “cleanup” services are included with your Rental/Linen Package.
